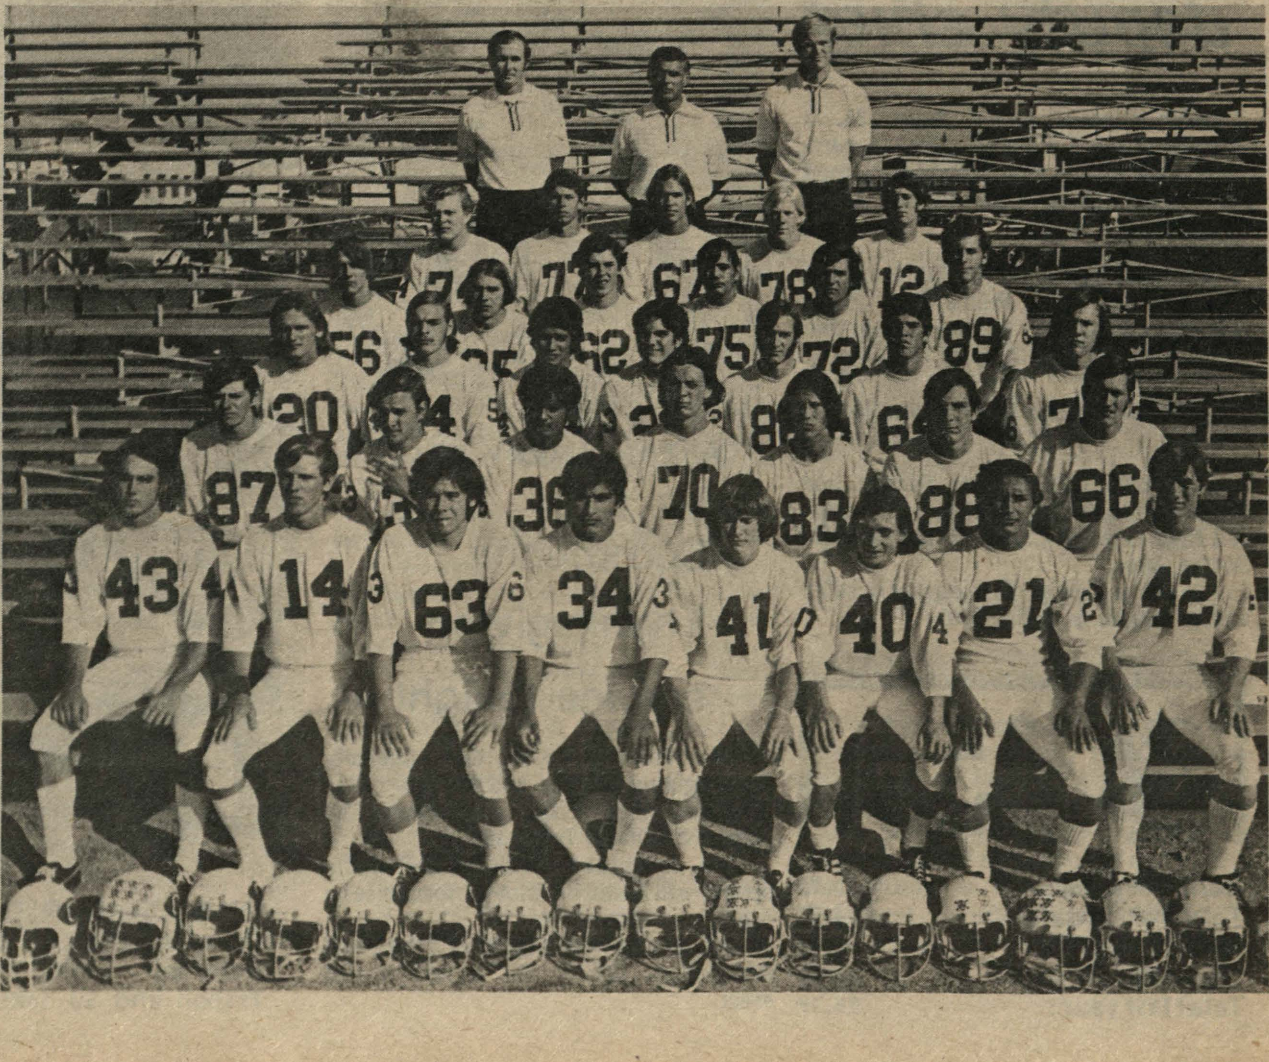
Every year many Campbell high school "oldtimers" show up on Thanksgiving day to watch their alma mater do battle with the Wildcats of Los Gatos.

Above is the first football squad in 1934. This year's squad is below.

There's a new twist this year though . . . Mike Spitzer, a player of 1961-62 fame, will be back on the Buc sidelines in 1973 — as a Campbell coach.

During the game's history, the Bucs trail in the series 21-15 with three games ending in ties. More on the game in today's sports section.



Nominations open Dec. 7

Council prepares to call election earlier: new law changes date

By resolution at the meeting next Monday, Nov. 26, the city council is scheduled to call the general municipal election for Tuesday, March 5, 1973, more than 30 days sooner than has been the case in the past election years.

New state legislation changes the dates for city elections and provides for only three regular election dates in even-numbered years.

City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan has also reported that nominations will open on Dec. 7 and close Dec. 27. Voter registration will close on Jan. 10, 1974.

The terms of two councilmen, Ralph Doetsch and Bill Podgorsek, expire as do the terms of City Clerk Trevethan and City Treasurer Velma Olds.

Councilman Podgorsek, who served as mayor last year, is completing his first four-year term of office and Councilman Doetsch is ending his twelfth year.

Podgorsek has unofficially indicated that he will seek reelection and expects to make his official announcement shortly. Doetsch has not yet committed himself.

Both Mrs. Trevethan and Mrs. Olds are also expected to file again.

At the meeting next Monday, the council is also expected to appoint the city's representative to the West Valley Progressive Citizens board to replace the late Ralph Weymouth.

The council is also scheduled to honor Mrs. Irma Reese, director of the progressive citizens, for her services to the community.

One of the zone change hearings that is scheduled for next Monday is the long-pending application involving a 130-unit apartment complex off El Patio drive. The complex is to be constructed for senior citizens and received the approval of the planning commission after it was specified that one occupant of each unit must be at least 58 years of age.

It was pointed out during discussion at the planning commission level that the proposed complex has a much higher density than the area allows. However, a senior citizen operation generates less traffic and thus fewer parking spaces are needed.

The council is also expected to award the contract for emergency police equipment next Monday from the low bids that have been received. The council has allocated $15,000 from revenue-sharing funds for the purchase of arms for the police.

Edwin Lassegard named new Campbell postmaster

Edwin E. Lassegard, 47, of 3596 Calico, San Jose, now office manager at the San Jose post office, has been appointed postmaster of Campbell, according to the announcement made this week by William J. Sullivan, regional postmaster general in San Francisco.

The new postmaster, however, will not actually take over until the first of the year. Until that time, Glen Knowles, assistant postmaster will continue as officer-in-charge of the local office.

Knowles has served in that capacity since Postmaster Bill Jennings accepted the position of postmaster in Pueblo, Colo.

Lassegard, a native of Mitchell, S. Dak., served in the army during World War II and entered the postal service as a sub-carrier in 1956 and transferred in that capacity to San Jose in 1963.

The new Campbell postmaster achieved his appointment through the merit selection procedure that is now in effect in the postal service.

Lassegard and his wife have three daughters.

Kelly named San Rafael deputy chief

Police Captain Larry Kelly, 34, a member of the Campbell police department since July 1, 1960, has been named Deputy Police Chief of San Rafael, it was announced this week.

San Rafael, a city of 45,000, is county seat of Marin county. Police Chief James Brussatori of that city has announced that he plans to retire in June of 1974.

Kelly will assume his new position on Jan. 2.

Capt. Kelly, with his wife, Sandra, and daughter, Stacey, 14, a student at Campbell High, came to Campbell in 1960 from Boston, Mass.

He was promoted to sergeant in 1963 and to captain in April, 1968.

Community Thanksgiving service tonight

This evening, Nov. 21, the community Thanksgiving service will be held in the Campbell high school auditorium. The service begins at 7:30 p.m.

The combined Protestant-Catholic service will feature a joint performance by a 100 voice choir.

Sponsored by the Campbell Ministerial Association, this is the second annual event.

Campbell to take leadership role

Committee to study intergovernmental cooperation gets approval of council

By a 4-1 vote (Councilman Ralph Doetsch dissenting), the city council indicated last week that the city should assume a leadership role in intergovernmental cooperation within the county.

Acting on a recommendation submitted by the citizens advisory goals committee in May of this year, the city council approved the formation of a committee that would determine the scope of intergovernmental cooperation that should be studied by some specialized unit from a university or some other source.

The action of the city council stemmed from a study session on the subject of intergovernmental cooperation held on Nov. 7 at which time Steve Goodman, who served as chairman of the intergovernmental sub-committee of the goals committee, explained the purpose of the recommendation.

Also present at the study session was Dr. Harold Goertner, a member of the political science staff at San Jose state, who has indicated interest in the development of better intergovernmental cooperation.

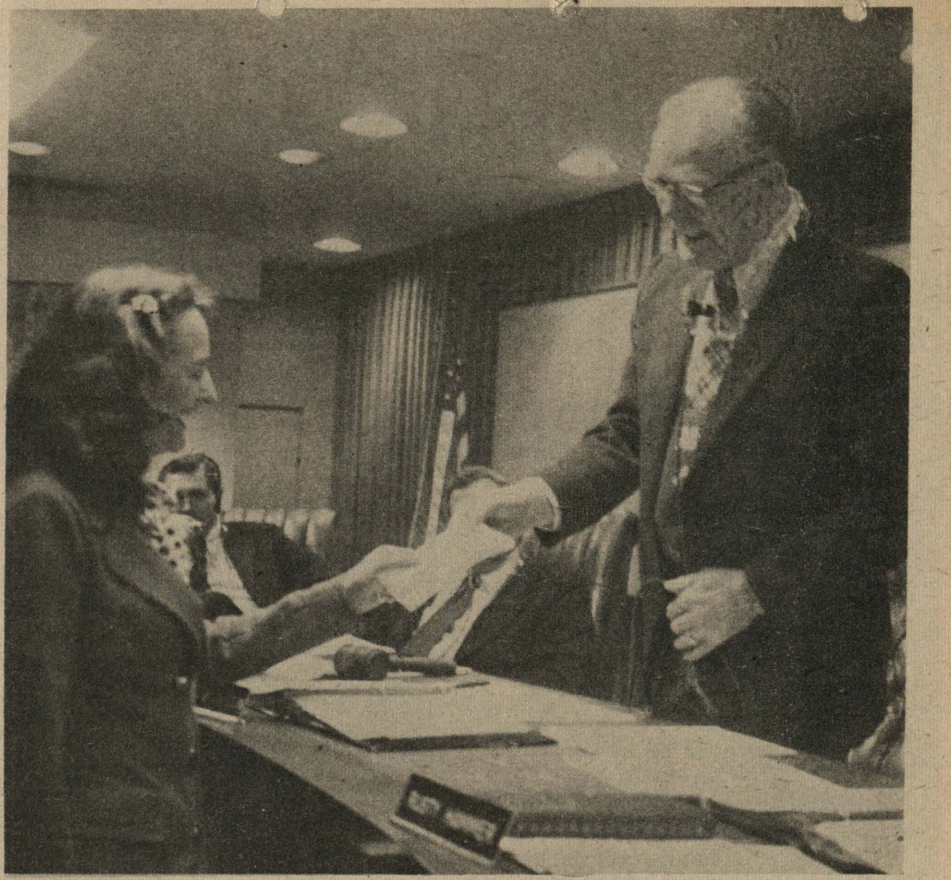
Members of one of Dr. Goertner's classes also attended the study session. Dr. Goertner informed the city council that he would assist the committee in research and in other phases.

In establishing the format for the new committee, the city council followed the suggestion of Vice Mayor Norm Paul, who maintained that the committee should be a "council committee" with the mayor chairing it.

The council approved Paul's motion which specified that two of the committee members would be councilmen (Chamberlin and Paul).

Chairmen of the four advisory commissions — Don Hebard, planning; Edith Morley, parks; Ben Gullo, youth and Jeanette Watson, civic improvement — were also approved as members.

In addition City Manager Bob Stephens and Dr. Goertner will serve on the committee.



PRESENTING A $265,000 check (or a reasonable facsimile) to Mayor Dean Chamberlin at a recent city council meeting was Mrs. Jeanette Watson, chairman of the Civic Improvement commission. The real check had already been deposited in the bank. The $265,000 check represents the county's allocation for the new library building which will be built between Central avenue and Harrison.

Rain causes rescheduled police auction

The pouring rain last weekend ruined more than outings or a day in the garden. It rained out the Campbell police department auction.

The auction has been reset to Saturday, Dec. 1 at the Campbell service center, 290 S. Dillon ave.

Lost or recovered articles not reclaimed are sold to the highest bidder at the semi-annual auctions.

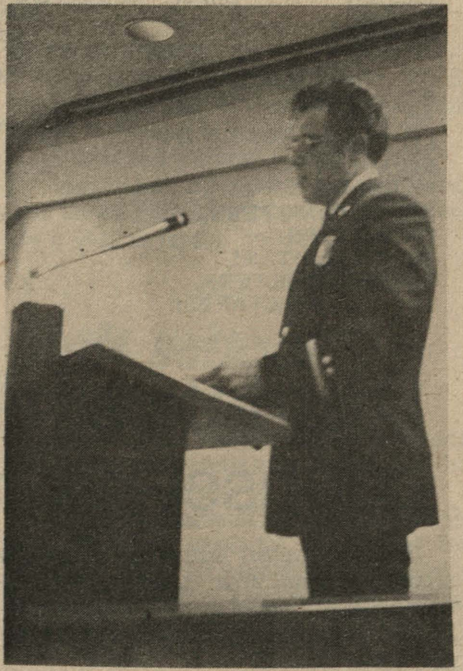
According to Captain John Butler, the Dec. 1 date is firm, rain or no rain.

New campaign disclosure law

In addition to changing the election dates for city balloting, new state legislation also provides for stricter regulations in the fields of financial disclosures and campaign expenditures, according to City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan.

The city clerk reports that candidates for city offices, as well as some appointed officials and city department heads, must reveal their financial "holdings" of $1000 or more.

Mrs. Trevethan also noted that campaign contributions must be submitted three times during the campaign and before the actual election.



BATTALION chief Sal Leonardi, filling in for Chief Gene Borden, was spokesman for the county fire chiefs association at a recent city council meeting. Council voted 3-2 after long discussion to recommend to county supervisors Nov. 27 that an ordinance be adopted banning the sale or use of fireworks in unincorporated areas of the county. Presently, Campbell permits sale and use of fireworks. Leonardi told the council six fires were caused by fireworks last year, and three small children were injured by fires caused by fireworks.

Discussion of route 85 status planned at meeting

State Division of Highway officials are scheduled to provide members of the planning commission on Monday, Dec. 3, with information concerning route 85 (West Valley freeway).

The briefing session will be at the regularly scheduled planning commission meeting which will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The city council has directed the planning commission to include the status of the freeway in the development of the city's traffic circulation plan.

City officials are especially concerned over the status of the acquisition of rights-of-way for the proposed freeway in the areas which affect Campbell and adjacent west valley cities.

Planners okay racket, handball facility on Salmar

Plans for a two-story racket and handball facility, to be called "The Courthouse" to be located at 577 Salmar ave., across from Gold Key furniture, received the approval of the planning commission Monday.

The building will contain 11.036 square feet with 10 handball-racketball courts.

W. Woodruff Tompkins and Steven F. Coy submitted the application for the use permit which is necessary because the property is in the interim zone area.

Action on the application of Daniel Pang for approval of plans for a Chinese restaurant at 1850 S. Bascom was continued until Dec. 17 to allow the applicant to modify plans.

The planning commission denied the requests for variances of Gold Seal Realty at 492 Nottingham Way.

The variances would allow the issuance of a use permit to convert a residence into an office. The matter had been pending for two years.

Approval was granted Richard Millen, developer of "The Factory" at 93 S. Central (the former Sunsweet plant) for a use permit that would increase the floor space of the commercial development.

Hebard to discuss commission meeting date change

Planning Commission chairman, Don Hebard, was directed by his fellow commissioners on Monday night to discuss with Mayor Dean Chamberlin and other councilmen the possibility of shifting the meeting date of the planning commission from Monday to Tuesday nights.

Hebard will report the results of the discussion to the commission at a later date.

Metrics are coming!

What happens when miles switch to kilometers, pounds to kilograms?

By PAT SAFFORD

"A miss is as good as 1.6 km."

HOW WOULD your life change if the US switched to the metric system tomorrow?

Art Ring, curriculum coordinator for the Campbell union elementary school district, and author of a new book, "Metrics, an introduction," posed that question recently.

With 90 per cent of the world already using the metric system of weights and measures, America's conversion is not far away. We'll most likely get 10 years to make the adjustment, however, instead of a day.

In 1972 the Senate unanimously approved the "Metric Conversion act of 1972." While last year's session ended before it could come before the House, it is expected to pass easily when it is introduced in its final form during the 1973 session.

The problems of conversion will be greatest for adults, according to Ring. Children entering school after 1975 are not expected to have any problem since metrics is easier than our present system. Under the metric system, all measures are made in multiples of ten. "It eliminates multiplication of fractions," Ring said. According to the district coordinator, some 15 to 25 per cent of class time in mathematics is spent on fractions.

THE NEW BOOK came as a result of Ring's work last summer at the San Jose state university demonstration school.

The metric system is best learned, according to Ring, through first hand real three-dimensional activities. Conversion tables should only be used when there is a special need or interest, he said, because the conversion exercises can be tiring and confusing. "Students will also discover the obvious advantages of metrics by themselves as they use it."

Adults and older students who already know and use the old system of weights and measures will have the most difficulty adjusting, he said.

Many manufacturers are already using the metric system to label their products, in addition to the standard ounces and pounds.

IN CALIFORNIA, educators see the handwriting on the wall and the first math books using the new system are expected to be in the classroom in 1976. Bids for new math texts will be taken in 1974, Ring said, and teachers will begin their evaluation in early 1975.

The local educator lives in Campbell with his wife Jo and their two children, Eddie, Jr., 16, and Joanne, 18. He's been in the school district for 17 years, beginning his career as a fifth and sixth grade teacher at Cherry Lane school. Eleven years ago he moved to the district office as a master teacher before being appointed curriculum coordinator.

LOCAL AUTHOR Art Ring, curriculum coordinator for the Campbell elementary school district, displays one of several charts showing converting to the Metric System included in his book.

While a one ounce bottle of perfume will be called 28 grams, and an inch worm may have to be retitled the 25 millimeter worm. At least one American institution, the football field, will remain the same, "There's no advantage in changing it," he said.

To see for yourself how it will be to convert inches and ounces to millimeters and milliliters, try the conversion chart below:

Some school trustees will be 'short-termed'

SCHOOL BOARD members may have their terms shortened by a year as a result of a new state law consolidating city and school elections.

Bob Owens, in the county counsel's office, has written superintendents informing them terms which would have expired in 1975 will instead expire next spring.

Although the law (SB 230) doesn't go into effect until Jan. 1, filing for the March 5 election begins Dec. 6 and ends Jan. 4, and a ruling from the state attorney general's office is expected to interpret the law as relevant for the current election.

Application of the law will result in elections in some districts and not in others. If a school district is wholly within the confines of a charter city, such as San Jose, it does not need to schedule an election.

Because part of the Fremont high school district is in Cupertino, a general law city with elections in March, all of the school district will be required to hold elections, even though much of the district is in Sunnyvale, a charter city.

But, in the East Valley, elementary districts wholly within the city limits of San Jose, will have elections only in the high school and junior college districts because a tiny portion of those districts is within the city of Milpitas, also a general law city holding spring elections.

ASSEMBLYMAN ALISTER McAlister (D-San Jose) plans to introduce urgency legislation to clear up the confusion in the law when the legislature convenes Jan. 7.

It was never the intention of the law to have this effect, his office said.

But, since the filing deadline is three days before the legislature meets again, it seems likely that the process will take place even though the election may not be held.

Rulings are expected from the state attorney general's office this week, said an unhappy George Mann, county registrar of voters. He is charged with administering the confusing law.

Districts seek clarity from counsel on new law

In the Campbell elementary and high school districts, four incumbent school trustees are affected by the new state law, SB 230, which consolidates city and school elections.

The terms of Dr. Robert King and Dr. Richard MacQuiddy in the elementary district and Mac Martinez and Bill Murphy in the high school district would be moved up a year by the new law which takes effect Jan. 1.

Instead of filing for re-election in December of 1974, the four face the prospect of filing before the Jan. 4 deadline as they wait for the state legislature, which convenes Jan. 7, to pass emergency legislation.

"The statute is very unclear," said Superintendent James D'Avis of the Campbell elementary school district. "We will be conferring with the county counsel office for further clarification and advice.

"The question has been raised," he continued, "as to whether the legislature can cause an elected official's term of office to be shortened as would be the case under the present interpretation of this law."

Superintendent Nick Montesano of the Campbell high school district said the new state law has caused "a lot of confusion." He feels sure there will be emergency legislation enacted as soon as the legislature reconvenes.

The two incumbents in the high school district will have to file, he said, against the contingency that correction legislation is not passed.

The question of which city the two districts would consolidate with was also raised by both administrators. "With one-half of our schools being in the city of San Jose," D'Avis said, "it's not clear what city we would need to consolidate with for election purposes."

The high school district has an even bigger overlap, Montesano said, with the schools situated in six different cities.

City hosts suggestion system seminar in SJ

Nearly 100 people from throughout the state are expected at the one-day seminar, "suggestion systems as a means to cost reduction and improved employer-employee relations," hosted by the city of Campbell on Friday, Nov. 30.

According to Keith Manley, program chairman, Campbell has such a plan and is a member of a group called the National Association of Suggestion Systems, Bay Area chapter.

The group was contacted by the League of California Cities, Manley said, who requested information on suggestions systems. The seminar grew out of that request.

The program includes a workshop with administrators from public agencies with existing systems and men from private industry including the past president of N.A.S.S. Charlie Foos and manager of United Airlines system, and N.A.S.S. Director Paul Bailey, administrator of the PG&E suggestion program.

The seminar will be held at the San Jose Hyatt House.

Siren sounds

KNOCK, KNOCK, WHO'S THERE?

Two Campbell homes were burglarized last week by two men posing as door-to-door salesmen, according to police reports.

Total value of the two thefts was more than $2,400. According to neighbors, the men, one carrying a briefcase, knocked on their doors. At one home they asked if the home next door was for rent and at the other they asked for a "Mr. Meyers."

The residents of the two burglarized Monica lane homes were not at home.

The two men were described as white males, 25 to 30 years of age and both about six feet tall. One was wearing a green car coat, and had dirty blond hair and a full beard. The other, wearing a brown leather car coat and with taps on his shoes, had brown hair.

THE HIGH COST OF . . .

Two businesses had meat stolen last week at a total value of over $1,000.

Food Villa, 1875 S. Bascom ave., reported $750 in meat, including two beef hind quarters and eight cases of canned hams, stolen.

The Lighthouse restaurant, 1555 S. Bascom ave., reported a small amount of cash and 43 pounds of top sirloin taken after the break-in.

AMBULANCE COMPANY BURGLARIZED

While attendants of the Bigelow Ambulance company, 426 E. Central ave., were out on a call last week, burglars made off with three items totaling $91 in value.

According to police reports, missing were a radio, electric shaver and a man's clear plastic raincoat.

STEREO THEFT

The office of Dr. William Starr, 281 E. Hamilton ave. No. 8, was broken into last week, according to reports.

Stolen was a stereo valued at $160.

Also on the theft reports was a $520 nail gun stolen from Barnhart Construction co. on a McCoy avenue building site.

Baseball field at high school

A new Little League baseball field is being built at the Westmont high school campus, it was announced last week.

The project, through the cooperation of Quito Little League and Westmont high, will cost approximately $12,000 with labor and materials donated.

When complete, the field will be fully equipped with a snack bar, storage area and restroom facilities, in addition to the baseball diamond.

While the league is not using the facility, Westmont students will use it for physical education classes and the Girl's Athletic association will use it for softball games.

A SUNNY DAY brought out these Rosemary school students to Campbell park last week. The youngsters brought their lunches to the park last Thursday before the storm clouds brought wet weather back to Campbell.

High school students sought for work experience program

High school students are being sought to fill two positions still open at Campbell city hall, according to Ronald R. Filice, work experience teacher for the Campbell union high school district.

The city council recently authorized funds to hire seven students through the high school work experinece program. Five of the positions have already been filled.

Applicants must be high school juniors or seniors, reside within the city limits of Campbell, and be at least 16 years of age.

The two jobs are for a traffic engineering aide and a parks worker, according to Filice.

For more information contact him at 371-0960.

Campbell high bleachers' fire hits equipment

A "good portion" of the track team's athletic equipment was destroyed by a fire last Wednesday at Campbell high school, according to Principal Robert Peck.

Also damaged in the blaze were some drama department props and stage equipment.

The fire, which broke out about 10 a.m. under the school bleachers, was quickly brought under control. No injuries were reported.

The cause of the fire has not been determined, Peck said.

Patriotic worship

Saratoga Avenue Baptist church,1735 Saratoga ave., San Jose, will hold a patriotic worship service Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 22 at 10 a.m.

The Thanksgiving message, entitled "Thank God for the church," will be delivered by the Rev. Loren Eastman, director of the conservative Baptist association of Northern California.

OUT ON THE LIMB

with George Vierhus

QUITE UNDERSTANDABLY the annual football feature that appears in The Press this issue always creates considerable comment. For more than 12 years, The Press, on the eve of the traditional Thanksgiving day battle between Los Gatos high and Campbell high, has published this unique feature.

We agree that it is corny, provincial and small-townish.

Various business people in the area appear in football helmets as sponsors of Campbell high football players.

There are some business people of this community who have appeared in every one of these football specials since the beginning.

As a case in point, there are a few stalwarts, such as Rex Jeffers, Lowell Benson, Tommy Blackmun and Dick Bersano, who have not missed a single football special.

And the pictures of these guys in the current issue are the same as those that were in the first feature way back in the dark ages.

Obviously, the guys have aged a little in the intervening years.

And the helmets used in the early pictures were "dated" then.

You can imagine what they are today.

Take the helmets that Rec, Lowell and Tommy are wearing in their photos. They look like the ones that the Notre Dame four horsemen made famous.

They really are classics or collectors' items.

But neither we nor the guys wearing 'em want to take new pictures at this stage of the game. That would eliminate the uniqueness.

We have been involved personally with this football feature for many years and, in most cases, a phone call is all that is needed for the "repeaters."

The feature serves another purpose also.

It is like a barometer for the business community.

It reveals some of the changes that have taken place during the past 12 months.

It is always surprising to note what turnovers businesswise there have been in one year.

For example, four of the helmet-wearing business people of 1972 are no longer in business in 1973.

Two of the local banks have had a change in managers this year, which meant new pictures. And another business that had been represented the year before in the football feature was under different ownership this year.

So it goes. That has been the story, more or less, each year since the football feature was originated.

Tempus fugit.

Or something.

EACH FOOTBALL EDITION at Thanksgiving generally develops another conversational controversy in many places.

The Los Gatos-Campbell rivalry on the gridiron has been in existence since 1934 and each year before the big game the scores of the previous encounters are published.

Conceding that a 40-year rivalry is a long period of time, the fact remains that a lot of football was played before 1934 and both Campbell high and Los Gatos high were established long before that.

So invariably the question is raised: how come Los Gatos and Campbell weren't battling on the grid before 1934?

The fact is that football was banned at Campbell high before 1934, supposedly by a principal whose brother had been killed in a football game.

Unfortunately, we have not researched the matter completely, although we have threatened to on occasion, generally each Thanksgiving issue before the Los Gatos-Campbell game.

We are always hoping that someone will furnish us with the accurate information so we won't have to dig.

We have had the picture, for example of the 1934 Campbell high football squad in our files for a number of years.

We are well aware that its clarity suffers in the reproduction.

But it still a sort of a classic on a local level, especially if one notes the names of those in that 1934 photo of Campbell high's first football team.

We are sure the names of Homer Hyde, Thayer Lyons, Frank Lovoi, Robert James and some of the others in that group photo of stalwart gridiron warriors sound familiar to you.

Incidentally, three generations of Hydes have gone through Campbell high which is probably another local record.

We say 'probably', just to be safe.

There may be another Campbell family with a similar or even better record.

After all, Campbell high school has been around for quite a spell.

AT A RECENT city council meeting, tacit approval was given a community Christmas tree program scheduled for early December on the temporary campus of West Valley college at Winchester and Campbell avenues.

The pitch at the council meeting was made by Phyllis Hofer, a member of the civic improvement commission which has endorsed the project.

Seated in the audience and prompting Phyllis from time to time was our own Pat Safford.

Pat is more or less the instigator of the idea and also took the mike to explain some of the details.

In the written outline distributed at the meeting, we noted that, in addition to Pat, who was listed as chairman for decorations, Sally Howe, as shown as publicity chairman and Grace Hebard as technical chairman.

In case, the names Pat, Sally and Grace don't ring a bell with you, let us point out that Pat is currently on the staff of The Press and that Grace and Sally have served time in this establishment also.

We submit, as someone succinctly put it after the council meeting, that The Press probably will give the project excellent coverage. Probably?

It there any other way?

Oh well, the publicity releases should be well-written anyway.

And it is a worthwhile community project.

LEGISLATORS FROM city councilmen on up seem to be shaken and concerned over aspects of the energy crisis that we seem to be facing as well as edicts from the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) concerning various phases of community life.

What has bugged some of the legislators, especially on the local level, has been the conflicting statements that have developed on the situation from governmental agencies involved in one way or another.

One illustration was the blast from EPA concerning parking spaces. It indicated that shopping centers and businesses in general could be charged a special tax based on the number of parking spaces available.

You can imagine the moans and groans that went up on that one.

IT COULD BE, of course, that these volunteer measures on the part of individuals, governmental entities, business and industry could stave off the energy crisis, provided there was cooperation all the way down the line.

As one might expect, Ed Fabbri, manager of the two branches of Bank of America in town and president of the Chamber of Commerce, has taken the lead in the curtailment program.

At lunch the other day, Ed informed us that as soon as he found the right switch or a pair of wire cutters, he was turning off the Bank of America lights after the bank was closed for the day.

Apparently he found the right switch.

The lights, we note, have been off lately.

For years, planning commissions and city councils have specified that commercial buildings must have adequate parking areas. . .i.e. so many spaces per square foot of building.

So now comes a proposed directive that penalizes the owner of a building for having those same parking spaces.

It is sort of a can't win for losing proposition.

OR TAKE ANOTHER proposed directive that has to do with fuel for buses.

We note that in the LA area, one federal agency forced the establishment of a mass transit system.

Now another federal agency has placed a limit on the fuel that the transit line can use which curtails the operation of the system.

On the local level, the city council has directed that City Manager Bob Stephens inform the city staff that except for emergencies, the speed limit for city cars is 50 mph.

We rode with Bob the other day after he had issued the 50 mph edict and he was adhering to it.

Cars were passing us like crazy.

It seemed as if we were standing still.

And someone told us he had tried to drive 50 mph on the freeway.

He practically was bumped off the road.

And he was the recipient of many baleful looks and blaring horns.

Editorial

Traffic diversion is working

City officials, since the traffic diversion plan for East Campbell avenue was put into effect, have been targets for considerable verbal abuse via letters in the San Jose daily papers and also in the feature "action line."

The letter-writers have complained that they have been inconvenienced by the blocking of E. Campbell avenue at Bascom and are very upset about the idea.

However, in almost every instance, the irate letterwriters have been out-of-the-area residents and were griping about getting through Campbell to their destination. They did not like the idea of using the main thoroughfares but preferred to cut through residential sections.

City officials were well aware that commuters would not like the traffic diversion plan and thus these criticisms were expected.

As a matter of fact, the main reason the plan was put into effect was to reduce the commuter traffic on E. Campbell avenue between Bascom and Leigh.

That section of the street had been carrying approximately 7,000 cars daily, about six times the normal load for a residential street.

The traffic diversion plan apparently has accomplished the objective much to the relief of the residents on the street.

There had been some concern that when the commuters were put off E. Campbell avenue they would use other residential streets in the same area.

But apparently that has not been the case. The commuters are using the major arteries such as Hamilton avenue, which after all was the intent of the blockade.

The residents on E. Campbell avenue have been charged with using undue influence on the city council in order to get the blockade into effect.

We think that is a grossly unfair charge.

Of course, there are many other traffic problems and there may be solutions to them, too. And the city should act in those cases.

But why be critical when a traffic problem is solved in the city, even if it is not your particular area?

The idea is to solve 'em all, if possible.

Everyone affected by diversion plan

EDITOR:

The G. Vierhus Nov. 7 statement in "out on the limb" re the new East Campbell avenue diversion implies that Campbell and the Campbell Press choose to ignore the needs of people who "live outside the area."

By area you must mean residents on Campbell avenue only because everyone else in the area is affected by the change.

Actually, I'm also in favor of blocking off all the residential streets in the Campbell area — that's really a great idea that you should promote.

And, by the way, who do you think is supporting the PruneYard and the Campbell Press? Of course it must be only the folks inside Campbell. What else is new?

Incidentally, is the Campbell Press for the people of the area or only those on Campbell avenue?

Some 'why's' of second class mail

EDITOR:

I have just recently moved to your city, and I must say I have been favorably impressed. That is, until today. I feel sure that you receive much unsolicited second class mail, as does everyone, it just seems one of the unpleasant aspects of our times.

The Post Office where I received mail prior to moving to Campbell has sent on to me second class mail, for which I must pay extra postage. Today I went to see what the article of second class mail which I received a notice was at your Post Office awaiting 12 cents.

When I realized it was unsolicited mail I refused to accept it, at which time I was informed if I refused any second class mail then I could not have any second class mail forwarded to me.

I have never been forced to accept unsolicited mail before if I wanted to receive ordered second class mail.

I have been told that the number of Post Office employees is determined by the number of stamps sold. Is this the reason I am being forced to receive all second class mail in order to receive that which I have ordered?

Miss Campbell becomes official county librarian

Barbara Campbell

Monday morning Barbara Campbell officially became county librarian, Howard Campen, county executive, announced recently.

The local woman was named acting county librarian in May when George Farrier retired.

Miss Campbell began her career as a clerical employee of the Berkeley public library in 1946, while attending the University of California there. During 1953 she worked as a civilian librarian at a US Air Force base in England. In 1954, she returned to the Berkeley library where she worked her way up to the position of branch librarian.

In 1966, she joined the Santa Clara county library as a supervising librarian.

Miss Campbell is a member of the California and American Library association and belongs to the San Jose branch of the American Association of University Women.

Traffic council vetos adult crossing guard

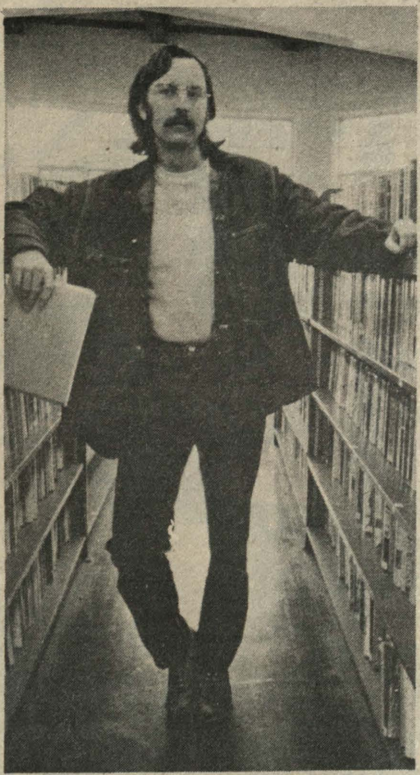
Requests for an adult crossing guard at Castlemont school, at Payne and Castlemont, and at Payne and Greenbriar, have been rejected by the San Jose traffic safety advisory council.

The council decided last week that traffic doesn't warrant the guard. The matter ends there, unless the decision is appealed.

A result of misuse of federal grand juries

Never indicted, never convicted

'They walked me down the hall into a judge's chambers. He said the government wanted me to testify, I wouldn't testify, then I must go to jail'



Robert K. Meisel, 28, prisoner at Elmwood county jail for refusing to testify to a federal grand jury.

By SUSAN COHEN

ROBERT K. MEISEL is odd man out at Elmwood county jail.

Though he says he may be there indefinitely, and that is the hardest part, he adds: "nobody who is guarding me knows what I'm here for."

When he tries to explain to other inmates that he has never been convicted by a jury of any crime, he says, "I get frustrated."

Robert Meisel, 28, is in a Santa Clara county jail because he refused to answer questions posed by a San Francisco federal grand jury about gun-running to the Irish Repulican Army from Butte, Montana.

He has never been indicted for smuggling guns.

Meisel's former roommate, who was never called to testify before the grand jury, was indicted, convicted and given a one year suspended sentence and two years probation. He has never served in jail.

MEISEL HAS BEEN in Elmwood for four months, in San Francisco city and county jail for a total of a month before that. He may remain in jail until he decides to testify, which he refuses to do because he says federal grand juries are used to "turn us into a nation of informers," or until the grand jury disbands in March. Should it reconvene he could remain in jail for an indefinite series of 18 month stretches (the life of a grand jury).

"If the average American even knew how the grand jury operated they'd protest," Meisel claims.

His predicament, one shared by two other people in the East, and experienced by dozens more over the past three years (in cases ranging from the Pentagon Papers to draft resistance) is one that has provoked the National Lawyers Guild. And the American Civil Liberties Union to agree with Meisel that federal grand juries are being terribly misused.

MEISEL, A COLLEGE graduate who is a house-painter and an activist in Irish Republican clubs, is outspoken in his view that the struggle in Ireland is "against British imperialism," a "civil rights struggle."

He has organized demonstrations but is evasive when asked if he has been involved in gun-running.

When the subpoena came in October, 1972, he knew that it involved a case of guns marked for Ireland from San Francisco which had burst open in London airport. The British government asked the US to investigate.

A federal grand jury is not required to tell you why you have been subpoenaed or what it is investigating.

Questions were aimed at finding out whether a trip to Butte, a strong Irish town, taken by Meisel and his roommate involved soliciting weapons from the local police department.

BUT, MEISEL SAYS, the questions were also generalized. "It was like a fishing expedition and they didn't even know what they wanted. A lot of their questions started out 'did you or anybody else you've ever known.' "

You are not allowed to bring a lawyer with you into a grand jury room and it is up to the jurors to allow you to run out and confer with a lawyer in the hall about a question.

Meisel refused to testify on constitutional grounds, pleading right to association, and the fifth amendment or right against self-incrimination among others.

He was called back and when he refused again, he says, "They walked me down the hall into a judge's chambers. He said the government wanted me to testify, I wouldn't testify, then I must go to jail."

THE OMNIBUS CRIME law, passed in 1970, allows federal grand juries to give witnesses limited immunity. This means that while evidence you produce cannot be used against you, you can still be prosecuted on the basis of someone else's evidence but you are no longer allowed to refuse to testify.

In the last 10 months, no one has been called to testify by the grand jury which investigated the Butte case. Nevertheless, the government says Meisel is important to their case. He has been freed on appeal once by US Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas but was returned to jail when the full Supreme court refused to hear his case. A subsequent appeal was denied but Meisel is planning on more this month.

In the meantime, he says, "I just live from day to day."

He has been made librarian at Elmwood, where he was transferred at his own request because he heard it was better than San Francisco's jail. He is not eligible for any of the jail's work-furlough or other programs because he is a federal prisoner.

"They made me librarian here because they figured I'd be here longer than anybody else," Meisel says, with what borders on amusement in his voice.

"Do you know," he asks in the same tone, "I went into the army and ended up in Vietnam so that I wouldn't go to jail."

'Inconsistent handling of fuel shortage'

Inadequate fuel allocations may strand county buses

PRESIDENT NIXON will be getting two letters from Santa Clara county next week.

The first will tell him that the county has complied with his telegrammed request to respond to the fuel shortage by limiting official county cars to speeds of 50 mph.

The second will take him to task for inconsistency in allowing the first energy crunch to cripple mass transit.

The Santa Clara county transit district has reported that county buses may be stranded by the end of the month if federal fuel allocations are not increased.

AT THE BOARD meeting Tuesday, Supervisor Sig Sanchez asked supervisors to respond to the president's telegram with a bumper sticker campaign saying: "I'm driving at 50 how about you."

Supervisor Dan McCorquodale protested: "It's the same thing as putting on a bumper sticker saying we support the president."

McCorquodale charged the crisis is being manufactured by the oil companies and manipulated by the president to take attention off Watergate.

"Gas has gone up from 24.9 cents to 45.5 cents in this county. Someone is making a tremendous profit," McCorquodale said.

SUPERVISOR VIC CALVO agreed "the profit motive is involved" and suggested that "if we're going to play the game we ought to go all the way and replace county cars with compact cars."

The vote was 4 to 1 with McCorquodale voting "no" to adopt the limit, the bumper sticker campaign, and direct the General Services Agency to buy American compact cars, for county departments, department heads, and supervisors.

On Wednesday, the supervisors were told by director of public works James Pott that the county can possibly operate buses till the end of the month only if they stop using diesel fuel for street maintenance. And next month, the buses may not run at all.

Federal regulations which went into effect Nov. 1, allocate to users 90 per cent of the amount of diesel fuel which they used in the same month of the previous year.

BUT THE COUNTY bus system has expanded the service on which last year's figure was based (at that time the buses were owned by private bus lines which the county took over.)

That means, Pott said, an allocation of 20,000 gallons for a need of 40,000 gallons.

There will be a meeting of the planning subcommittee of the transportation commission Wednesday, Nov. 21 at 4:15 p.m. to come up with an emergency plan in case service has to be curtailed. Pott has suggesting making the buses more infrequent.

The county has written to both state and federal agencies to try to get an increased fuel allocation.

Pott also reported that the propane-powered buses ordered for expanded spring service have not yet been threatened by fuel shortages.

Homecoming queen will be chosen at Del Mar

By COLLEEN ROONEY

WHO WILL REIGN?

Tomorrow is the annual homecoming game against the Camden Cougars in the Del Mar bowl. At the half-time the homecoming queen and the two princesses will be announced and crowned. Last year's queen, Debbie Toro, will place the crown on the queen's head.

Thirteen girls were nominated by various clubs for this honor. These girls are juniors: Cathy Campbell, Karen Head, Monica San Fillippo, Lili Wenzel and Kim Yager. Seniors nominated were Desiree Goyette, Lynn Hunt, Cindy LaMar, Kathy Meyers, Lynn Olavarri, Cheryl Russell, Rena Toro and Abbie Western.

The semi-final elections were held last Wednesday, Nov. 14. The contest was close but it was finally narrowed down to three girls: Desiree Goyette, Kathy Meyers and Kim Yager.

Final elections for queen were held today. The results will not be disclosed until tomorrow at the game, when seniors Steve Austin, Dan Anisman, Dale Roat and George Todd escort the girls onto the field. Be there and see who will reign as queen and see Del Mar whip the Camden teams. (Also the "ugly man" will be announced at the game).

1950'S REVISITED

Today was 1950's day at Del Mar. Many students dressed up in clothing of the 1950's and had a great time. Tonight is the second annual 1950's dance sponsored by the PTA. The dance also is an alumni dance. "Daddy-O", is the band playing music from the fifties.

Held in the cafeteria, the cost is 50 cents with student body card and $1 without. Graduates from the class of 1973 will get in free. If you're an alumni or still attending Del Mar, put on your red lipstick or slick back your hair and be at the dance at 7 p.m.

WE LOVE YOU!!!

Hail to the Del Mar varsity football team for doing such a fantastic job this year. We love you!!!

Look our world, here come the Del Mar Don's basketball team. We are the defending first place team for the past two years and we aim to win again, so beware!

Homecoming king to boost student body card sales

By BARBARA KUPBENS

CAMPBELL VS. LOS GATOS

Once again Campbell high's football team will play against Los Gatos high. This is our annual Turkey day game when the trophy goes up again!

Last Friday night was our homecoming dance at Campbell. The "Chosen Few" was the band that played. The finalists for homecoming queen were Linda Moreno, Carol Thompson, Cynthia McGuire, Cheryl Benjamin and Karen Doss.

HOMECOMING KING THIS YEAR

Something new is going to happen this year at Campbell high. We have our traditional homecoming queen and a king, too! Yes, that's a king. He will be chosen by a new system this year. Since the reasoning behind having a king was to promote student body card sales, each of the four classes will choose a prince and the class with the highest percentage of student body card sales will have their prince crowned king.

The king will escort our queen to the dance. The king will not be crowned until sometime after the homecoming dance for 1973!

Westmont PTSA to hold breakfast before game

By DIANE DONIELSON

After the excitement of the earthquake last week, Westmont has now settled down to its normal routine. Many people were quite shaken by the quake but others didn't feel it was quite long enough. It was a pleasant digression from the average humdrum Monday.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

The finalists for homecoming queen of Westmont of the 1973 Turkey day game have been chosen. They are Sue Metcalf, Robin Rosendale, Linda Fowles, Sheri Tounger, Margaret Skarmas and Patty Boyd. The queen and princesses will be announced at the homecoming dance Wednesday, Nov. 22.

The dance will be from 8-11 p.m. and the band "Backroads" will play. The cost will be $1.00 for ASB card holders and $2.00 for guests and non-ASB card holders.

The queen and princesses will reside over the annual homecoming game against Leigh. This year the Longhorns will travel to Westmont to face us on home ground. The battle will take place on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 23 at 11 a.m. All alumni and visitors are welcome. The junior varsity game will be played Wednesday, Nov. 22 at 2:45 on the Leigh field.

Before the game on Thursday, the Westmont PTSA is sponsoring a pancake breakfast from 8:30-11:00 a.m. Also included are eggs, sausage and a beverage. The cost is $1.35 for those who are 13 years and older, $1.00 for those 7-12 years and a special price of 80 cents for little tykes under seven.

Proceeds will go to the PTSA for a scholarship fund. Many groups at school are selling the tickets including GAA and CSF. Everyone is encouraged to attend — it will be a delicious way to start the Thanksgiving holidays.

3.34.010 Definitions. Except where the context otherwise requires, the definitions given in this section govern the construction of this chapter.

(a) Person. "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, joint venture, association, social club, fraternal organization, joint stock company, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, trustee, syndicate, or any other group or combination acting as a unit.

(b) Hotel. "Hotel" means any structure, or any portion of any structure, which is occupied or intended or designed for occupancy by transients for dwelling, lodging or sleeping purposes, and includes any hotel, inn, tourist home or house, motel, studio hotel, bachelor hotel, lodging house, rooming house, apartment house, dormitory, public or private club, mobilehome or house trailer at a fixed location, or other similar structure or portion thereof.

(c) Occupancy. "Occupancy" means the use or possession, or the right to the use or possession of any room or rooms or portion thereof, in any hotel for dwelling, lodging or sleeping purposes.

(d) Transient. "Transient" means any person who exercises occupancy or is entitled to occupancy by reason of concession, permit, right of access, license or other agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days or less counting portions of calendar days as full days. Any such person so occupying space in a hotel shall be deemed to be a transient until the period of thirty (30) days has expired. In determining whether a person is a transient, uninterrupted periods of time extending both prior and subsequent to the effective date of this ordinance may be considered.

(e) Rent. "Rent" means the consideration charged, whether or not received, for the occupancy of space in a hotel valued in money, whether to be received in money, goods, labor or otherwise, including all receipts, cash, credits and property and services of any kind or nature, without any deduction therefrom whatsoever.

(f) Operator. "Operator" means the person who is proprietor of the hotel, whether in the capacity of owner, lessee, sublessee, mortgagee in possession, licensee, or any other capacity. Where the operator performs his functions through a managing agent of any type or character other than an employee, the managing agent shall also be deemed an operator for the purposes of this chapter and shall have the same duties and liabilities as his principal. Compliance with the provisions of this chapter by either the principal or the managing agent shall, however, be considered to be compliance by both.

(g) Tax administrator. "Tax administrator" means the director of finance.

3.34.020 Tax imposed. For the privilege of occupancy in any hotel, each transient is subject to and shall pay a tax in the amount of five per cent (5%) of the rent charged by the operator. Said tax constitutes a debt owed by the transient to the city which is extinguished only by payment to the operator or to the city. The transient shall pay the tax to the operator of the hotel at the time the rent is paid. If the rent is paid in installments, a proportionate share of the tax shall be paid with each installment. The unpaid tax shall be due upon the transient's ceasing to occupy space in the hotel. If for any reason the tax due is not paid to the operator of the hotel, the tax administrator may require that such tax shall be paid directly to the tax administrator.

3.34.030. Exemptions. No tax shall be imposed upon:

(a) Any person as to whom, or any occupancy as to which, it is beyond the power of the city to impose the tax herein provided;

(b) Any officer or employee of the federal government or State of California or any political subdivision thereof when on official business;

(c) Any officer or employee of a foreign government who is exempt by reason of express provision of federal law or international treaty. No exemption shall be granted except under a claim therefor made at the time rent is collected and under penalty of perjury upon a form prescribed by the tax administrator.

3.34.040 Operator's duties. Each operator shall collect the tax imposed by this chapter to the same extent and at the same time as the rent is collected from every transient. The amount of tax shall be separately stated from the amount of rent charged, and each transient shall receive a receipt for payment from the operator. No operator of a hotel shall advertise or state in any manner, whether directly or indirectly, that the tax or any part thereof will be assumed or absorbed by the operator, or that it will not be added to the rent, or that, if added, any part will be refunded except in the manner hereinafter provided.

3.34.05. Registration. Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this ordinance, or within thirty (30) days after commencing business, whichever is later, each operator of any hotel renting occupancy to transients shall register said hotel with the tax administrator and obtain from him a "transient occupancy registration certificate" to be at all times posted in a conspicuous place on the premises. Said certificate shall, among other things, state the following:

(1) The name of the operator;

(2) The address of the hotel;

(3) The date upon which the certificate was issued;

(4) "This Transient Occupancy Registration Certificate signifies that the person named on the face hereof has fulfilled the requirements of the Uniform Transient Occupancy Tax Ordinance by registering with the tax administrator for the purpose of collecting from transients the Transient Occupancy Tax and remitting said tax to the tax administrator. This certificate does not authorize any person to conduct any unlawful business or to conduct any lawful business in any unlawful manner, nor to operate a hotel without strictly complying with all local applicable laws, including but not limited to those requiring a permit from any board, commission, department or office of this city. This certificate does not constitute a "permit."

3.34.060 Reporting and remitting. Each operator shall, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each calendar quarter, or at the close of any shorter reporting period which may be established by the tax administrator, make a return to the tax administrator, on forms provided by him, of the total rents charged and received and the amount of tax collected for transient occupancies. At the time the return is filed, the full amount of the tax collected shall be remitted to the tax administrator. The tax administrator may establish shorter reporting periods for any certificate holder if he deems it necessary in order to insure collection of the tax and he may require further information in the return. Returns and payments are due immediately upon cessation of business for any reason. All taxes collected by operators pursuant to this chapter shall be held in trust for the account of the city until payment thereof is made to the tax administrator.

3.34.070. Penalties and interest.

(a) Original delinquency. Any operator who fails to remit any tax imposed by this chapter within the time required shall pay a penalty of 10% of the amount of the tax in addition to the amount of the tax.

(b) Continued delinquency. Any operator who fails to remit any delinquent remittance on or before a period of thirty (30) days following the date on which the remittance first became delinquent shall pay a second delinquency penalty of 10% of the amount of the tax in addition to the amount of the tax and the 10% penalty first imposed.

(c) Fraud. If the tax administrator determines that the non-payment of any remittance due under this chapter is due to fraud, a penalty of 25% of the amount of the tax shall be added thereto in addition to the penalties stated in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) Interest. In addition to the penalties imposed, any operator who fails to remit any tax imposed by this chapter shall pay interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month or fraction thereof on the amount of the tax, exclusive of penalties, from the date on which the remittance first became delinquent until paid.

(e) Penalties merged with tax. Every penalty imposed and such interest as accrues under the provisions of this section shall become a part of the tax herein required to be paid.

3.34.080. Failure to collect and report tax — Determination of tax by tax administrator. If any operator shall fail or refuse to collect said tax and to make, within the time provided in this chapter, any report and remittance of said tax or any portion thereof required by this chapter, the tax administrator shall proceed in such manner as he may deem best to obtain facts and information on which to base his estimate of the tax due. As soon as the tax administrator shall procure such facts and information as he is able to obtain upon which to base the assessment of any tax imposed by this chapter and payable by any operator who has failed or refused to collect the same and to make such report and remittance, he shall proceed to determine and assess against such operator the tax, interest and penalties provided for by this chapter. In case such determination is made, the tax administrator shall give a notice of the amount so assessed by serving it personally or by depositing it in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the operator so assessed at his last known place of address. Such operator may within ten (10) days after the serving or mailing of such notice make application in writing to the tax administrator for a hearing on the amount assessed. If the application by the operator for a hearing is not made within the time prescribed, the tax, interest and penalties, if any, determined by the tax administrator shall become final and conclusive and immediately due and payable. If such application is made, the tax administrator shall give not less than five (5) days written notice in the manner prescribed herein to the operator to show cause at a time and place fixed in said notice why said amount specified therein should not be fixed for such tax, interest and penalties. At such hearing, the operator may appear and offer evidence why such specified tax, interest and penalties should not be so fixed. After such hearing the tax administrator shall determine the proper tax to be remitted and shall thereafter give written notice to the person in the manner prescribed herein of such determination and the amount of such tax, interest and penalties. The amount determined to be due shall be payable after fifteen (15) days unless an appeal is taken as provided in section 3.34.090.

3.34.090. Appeal. Any operator aggrieved by any decision of the tax administrator with respect to the amount of such tax, interest and penalties, if any, may appeal to the city council by filing a notice of appeal with the city clerk within fifteen (15) days of the serving or mailing of the determination of tax due. The city council shall fix a time and place for hearing such appeal, and the city clerk shall give notice in writing to such operator at his last known place of address. The findings of the city council shall be final and conclusive and shall be served upon the appellant in the manner prescribed above for service of notice of hearing. Any amount found to be due shall be immediately due and payable upon the service of notice.

3.34.10. Records. It shall be the duty of every operator liable for the collection and payment to the city of any tax imposed by this chapter to keep and preserve, for a period of three (3) years, all records as may be necessary to determine the amount of such tax as he may have been liable for the collection of and payment to the city, which records the tax administrator shall have the right to inspect at all reasonable times.

3.34.110. Refunds.

(a) Whenever the amount of any tax, interest or penalty has been overpaid or paid more than once or has been erroneously or illegally collected or received by the city under this chapter, it may be refunded as provided in sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section provided a claim in writing therefor, stating under penalty of perjury the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded, is filed withthe tax administrator within three (3) years of the date of payment. The claim shall be on forms furnished by the tax administrator.

(b) An operator may claim a refund or take as credit against taxes collected and remitted the amount overpaid, paid more than once or erroneously or illegally collected or received when it is established in a manner prescribed by the tax administrator that the person from whom the tax has been collected was not a transient; provided, however, that neither a refund nor a credit shall be allowed unless the amount of the tax so collected has either been refunded to the transient or credited to rent subsequently payable by the transient to the operator.

(c) A transient may obtain a refund of taxes overpaid or paid more than once or erroneously or illegally collected or received by the city by filing a claim in the manner provided by sub-paragraph (a) of this section, but only when the tax was paid by the transient directly to the tax administrator, or when the transient having paid the tax to the operator, establishes to the satisfaction of the tax administrator that the transient has been unable to obtain a refund from the operator who collected the tax.

(d) No refund shall be paid under the provisions of this section unless the claimant establishes his right thereto by written records showing entitlement thereto.

3.34.120. Actions to collect. Any tax required to be paid by any transient under the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed a debt owed by the transient to the city. Any such tax collected by an operator which has not been paid to the city shall be deemed a debt owed by the operator to the city. Any person owing money to the city under the provisions of this chapter shall be liable to an action brought in the name of the City of Campbell for the recovery of such amount.

3.34.130. Proceeds to General Fund. The proceeds derived from the Transit Occupancy Tax shall be accounted for separately in the General Fund. Such monies shall be expended only for the following purpose or purposes:

Cougars stand at 3-6

Camden makes breaks in win against Westmont

While baseball is a game of inches, football is generally a game of breaks.

There were just two breaks in last Friday afternoon's game between Camden and Westmont — and both of them belonged to the Cougars.

Dave Pursey, the Cougar's fine defensive back, caused the biggest break of the game midway through the second period when he intercepted a Warrior pass at midfield and returned it all of the way for the game's only score.

The other Camden break also occurred in the second period, although it didn't appear to be crucial until after the game.

The Warriors drove down to the Camden five yard line and then completed a short pass. But a jarring tackle by Camden near the goal line caused the ball to squirt from the receiver's clutches and Cougar halfback Marty Mullins recovered the one yard line.

The win was Camden's third in their last four games and raised their season ledger to 3-6.

"It was a little sloppy out there (on the field)," noted Cougar boss Bob Gatiss. "The field was in such bad shape the game just turned into a defensive struggle."

Neither club was able to move with much success in the second half. But the Cougars averted trouble by keeping good field position thanks to the punting of Rick Davis.

"Davis' punting was a real key to our winning," Gatiss added. "He kept them deep in their own territory."

The big play in the second half came with the Cougars mired deep in their own backyard at the Camden 15. Senior quarterback Craig Nolan got them out of trouble quickly, however, with a 35 yard aerial to Mullins.

Four plays later Davis, aided by the Cougar's improved field position, pinned the Warriors back inside their own 20 with a good punt.

The Cougar defense made Gatiss' conservative strategy stand up in the second half with some tough play, especially from the linebacking corps of Scott Greco, Kurt Nelson and Ron Scadina.

Other defensive standouts included Pursey, Dave Ciraulo and Mullins.

The shut-out was the first of the season for the much improved Cougar defensive unit.

Bucs after runner-up spot after 26-0 loss

By DICK SPARRER
Sports Editor

With Saratoga in the same league, many teams in the West Valley athletic league heap have been battling for second since nearly the beginning of 1973.

And Campbell has been one of the schools in the heat of the fight for a runner-up berth. But those second place hopes were dealt a severe blow last Friday when the Bucs were blasted 26-0 by Branham on the loser's field.

The loss dropped Campbell to 5-3 in WVAL play, leaving Los Gatos alone in second place at 6-2. Campbell, Branham and Leigh are all tied for third at 5-3.

Campbell's last chance for a share of second comes Thursday in the 40th annual Campbell-Los Gatos Thanksgiving Day football game. The 40th game will be played at Los Gatos' Helm field at 11 a.m.

Wins by the Bucs, Bruins and Longhorns would cause a four way logjam for second in the WVAL with LG joining in. But a Wildcat win would give them second and push the Bucs as far down as a possible fifth.

Campbell had nothing but trouble from the start against Branham last Friday. They ended the day with just 150 total yards while Branham pounded out 337.

Branham, after running back the opening kick-off 37 yards, broke the first play from scrimmage in the game 59 yards to paydirt to take an early 6-0 lead. Larry LaMoine blocked the kick try for the extra point.

The Bucs couldn't move on their first set of downs but, after punting the ball away, Jerry Navarro intercepted for Campbell. Their control was short-lived, though, when they fumbled the ball away on their third play.

Branham took the ball and marched 65 yards for their second touchdown. A key play in the drive was a fourth down punt fake that was good for a critical first down. John McMongle picked off the pass on the try for two points.

Not able to move again, Campbell punted to Branham again and four plays later they broke one 70 yards to make the score 20-0.

Campbell's biggest threat of the day was in the third quarter when they drove to the Branham 13. Tom Davis returned the second half kick-off 15 yards to the 37.

Campbell took 12 plays to cover 50 yards before coughing the ball up on a fumble at the 13. Gil de la Pena ran for 15 yards and Davis 18 yards in the drive. A pass interference penalty gave the Bucs a first down at the 13 before the fumble.

Defensive end Tom Bojorques was tops for Campbell and LaMoine, Terry Fitzpatrick, Jim Guardino and Tom Guardino all played strong defense. Russ Hayslip recovered a fumble for the Bucs.

Davis led Buc ball carriers with 23 yards on seven carries and Oswald gained 25 yards on four tries. Through the air Oswald was three for 12 for 34 yards and three interceptions and McMongle was five for six for 43 yards. Tim Mason caught four passes for 32 yards and T. Guardino, Bob Hart, John Navarro and Davis one each.

Panthers to hope end '73 the way they began — win

"We started the season with a win. We'd like to end up our season in the same way and forget about what went on in between," said Prospect football coach Earl Adams after watching his Panthers sink to their seventh straight loss of the season last Friday.

The Panthers, who dropped a 35-0 decision to the Leigh Longhorns, will try to close out their season with a win over the defensively strong Branham Bruins in an 11 a.m. contest Thursday, Thanksgiving morning.

The turning point in the Leigh game early for the Prospect 11. Trailing just 7-0 early in the second half, Prospect marched down to the Longhorn one yard line where David Watts apparently scored on a one-yard plunge.

But the TD was nullified because of a motion penalty, killing Prospect's momentum at the time.

The Panthers moved down to the one yard line later in the third period with Leigh leading 21-0, but turned the ball over on downs.

Watts, a junior halfback, was one of the brightest spots in an otherwise dismal afternoon when he rushed for 62 yards on 12 carries.

"Watts was a real pleasant surprise," Adams noted. "He was late in coming out this fall, then he was hurt and then he had blisters. He's just now rounding into shape."

Junior punter Jay Potts also had his best day of the season, booming four punts that traveled 50 yards or better and finishing the afternoon with an average of 42 yards per boot.

Ross McCannon was the Panther's defensive standout for the game, making 11 tackles including a pair of quarterback sacks. He also played a strong game at offensive tackle, according to Adams.

Adams also singled out Don Knapp, an offensive guard, and Dal Roberts, a defensive tackle, for turning in stellar performances.

Post season predictions for Lick, Lincoln winners

It's all over but the "Turkey Day" battles in regular season action in the West Valley and Santa Teresa athletic leagues.

But it's just starting as far as post season play goes.

The Central coast section play-offs begin Friday at Spartan stadium with James Lick, champions of the Mt. Hamilton athletic league, battling Pioneer, kingpins in the STAL.

So, after a mediocre crystal ball season in every league but the STAL, we have to try to finish up strong to salvage glory in '73.

We go with the Comets of James Lick to win by eight in the CCS play-offs opener and move on to the second weekend against Saratoga of the WVAL.

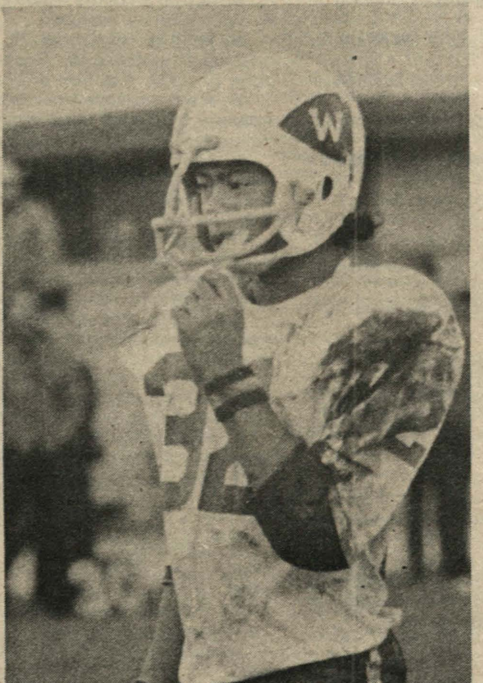
In "Turkey Day" bouts, Lincoln will retain the "Big Bone" for another season with a 12 point win over San Jose in the STAL season ender.

In the WVAL, Los Gatos will take Campbell by 12 at LG, visiting Leigh will take Westmont by 18, host Prospect will fall to Branham by 14, home team Del Mar will take Camden by eight and league champ Saratoga will smash Blackford by 27.

★ Press athlete of the week ★

BERT CODERA
WESTMONT WARRIORS
Football . . . running back

There haven't been too many bright spots in 1973 for Westmont football coach Don Stagnero. His club is struggling with a 2-6 record and four of those losses have been by a touchdown or less. But Codera gave Stagnero something to smile about recently in action against Blackford.



The Warrior running back gained 140 yards and scored twice to lift Westmont to a 14-13 win over the Braves.

For his performance against Blackford, Codera has been selected the Campbell Press athlete of the week. Because he has been named the week's top athlete, Bert will receive a coupon for a free pizza at the Straw Hat pizza parlor, 1400 W. Campbell ave., and a picture of himself in action.

Codera gained 140 yards on 10 carries in the game for a 14.0 per carry average. He scored on runs of 21 and 60 yards. His second TD lifted Westmont from a 13-6 deficit to within a point at 13-12.

Others considered for athlete of the week honors were Tom Guardino and Charlie Wilcox, Campbell football, Charlie Fought and Pat Owens, Westmont football, Tom Alarcon, Camden football, and Ken Bondelie, Ron Tedesco and Wade Fearnside, Del Mar football.

Thanksgiving traditionals

Area preps gird for grid rivalries

By DAVE MENDONCA

A GOOD SEASON can suddenly turn sour and a bad season can suddenly look better depending upon the outcome of a club's traditional game with their bitter rival.

Eight West Valley athletic league schools will be up bright and early Thanksgiving day to take to the gridiron for renewals of their Turkey Day battles with their traditional rivals.

Camden and Del Mar, the second oldest of the Thanksgiving games to be played, will clash on the Don's field, Saratoga and Blackford mix it up at Blackford, Leigh and Westmont confront each other on the Warrior's home grounds and Branham and Prospect will do battle at Prospect. All four games get underway at 11 a.m.

Camden holds a commanding 10-3 series edge over the Dons in their rivalry. But last year Del Mar recorded a 27-13 triumph in the Thanksgiving annual.

Del Mar takes a better record into the clash, 4-4 compared to Camden's 3-5. But records can be deceiving. The Cougars are fresh off of a 6-0 win over Westmont and have now won three of their last four games. Del Mar is still reeling from a 52-14 shellacking handed them by the powerful Saratoga Falcons after three wins in a row.

"WE WANT TO HAVE a winning season," noted Del Mar coach Jim Clifton, and in order to do so they must beat the Cougars.

The Dons are faced with somewhat of a jinx on their own field, however. Del Mar has never beaten the Cougars at DM. They are 0-6 at home while they are 3-4 at Camden.

"We'd sure like to break that jinx," Clifton added.

The Dons have a potent offense with some excellent talent in the likes of quarterback Mickey Plesha, running back Kirk Poppay and wide receiver Wade Fearnside.

Plesha has run for nine touchdowns and thrown for seven others. Poppay has already rushed for over 500 yards. Fearnside has caught five TD passes.

LAST YEAR FEARNSIDE "killed Camden by himself," according to Clifton, when he intercepted four passes and recovered one fumble from his defensive halfback spot.

The Cougars rely on the running of Dave Pursey and the blocking of Jeff Richards and Matt Medeiros to put points on the board. Pursey has gained over 400 yards this season.

Defensively linebacker Scott Greco has been Camden's standout performer, leading the club in tackles.

The Saratoga-Blackford series enters its 13th year Thursday, and the Braves are hoping 13 will be an unlucky number for the still unbeaten Falcons.

Saratoga holds a commanding 8-3-1 edge in the series, including last year's 39-0 romp over the Braves.

Although the series has been somewhat lopsided in the past, it has managed to produce some strange and exciting games.

One of the strangest has to be a game Blackford coach George Pesut recalls:

"A COUPLE OF YEARS ago they were heavily favored to beat us. But after one quarter we led them 26-6. I guess we got them mad because they went on to beat us 72-26!"

On another occasion Saratoga took a 19-0 lead into the final period only to have the Braves rally to tie it 19-19.

While Saratoga enters the game with an unblemished 9-0 record, Blackford goes into the contest with a dismal 1-8 ledger.

Top offensive players for the Braves this year have been guard Dan Bongiovanni, tight end Jim Darnall and fullback Tom Blandford, who has averaged 4.5 yards per carry this season.

sports

"Our problems this season has been turnovers," moaned Pesut, noting the Braves had committed 39 in their first eight games.

Defensively Wayne Hagin in the secondary has been a stellar performer for Blackford.

THE LEIGH LONGHORNS will be in search of revenge for the 32-22 loss they were handed by Westmont last year.

Despite their '72 defeat, the Longhorns still maintain a comfortable 6-3 series lead over the Warriors.

Although Leigh takes a 6-3 ledger into the contest compared to Westmont's 2-6 log, Longhorn boss Pete Galloni refuses to overlook the Warriors.

"If the game goes according to the way it has gone in the past we're going to be in for a tough game," Galloni said. "You can forget about records. I anticipate a hard fought game."

The Longhorns have displayed an awesome offense this year and feature two spectacular players in quarterback Jeff Beeson and receiver-running back Rick Foley.

Beeson has already tossed 16 touchdown passes this year and is hitting at better than 55 per cent. He has thrown for better than 1,000 yards.

Foley, a superb all around athlete, has snared 43 passes for 679 yards and has rushed for another 400-plus.

Defensively linebacker Jim Fuson, who has averaged better than 13 tackles a game, safety Mary Maiers, who has nine interceptions, Ryan Wendell and Steve Leonard have all been sparkling performers all year.

PAT OWNES, THE Warrior's fine fullback, is Westmont's main offensive threat, rushing for over 700 yards this season. Split end Keith VanAmberg is another Warrior threat.

Defensive lineman Tom Espinosa has been the Warrior's top man on the defensive unit. He also played a big part in last year's win against the Longhorns.

If tradition holds up this season the Branham Bruins are about to be upset by Prospect since the game is being played on the Panther's home field.

Neither squad has ever lost at home during the five year series, Branham holding a slight 3-2 advantage.

Branham goes into the game with 5-3 record compared to Prospect's 1-7.

Earl Adams, Prospect's boss, looks at his club's season this way — "We started the season with a win (28-0 over Blackford). I'd like to end it with a win and forget about everything in between those two games."

THE GAME MIGHT turn out to be the only defensive struggle on the Thanksgiving slate. Branham has been playing outstanding defensive games all season while Adams claims his defense is "as good as anyone's in the league."

The Panther's defense is spearheaded by linebackers Glen Holtz and Jim Medefesser and defensive back Nick Bibich, who has five thefts to his credit this season.

Offensively, quarterback Brad Guenther and left tackle Ross McCannon have been Prospect's stars this season.

Bill Davis, Mike Terronez and Ron Hayes, who have all rushed for over 350 yards this season, give Branham a strong running game.

On defense Todd Perry, Howard Meyer, Ken Bell, Steve Bell and Jack Cook have all performed brilliantly.

Local teams to vie for PAL titles

The northern California youth football titles will be up for grabs in five divisions Saturday when Police Athletic league teams from all over the area converge on the San Jose PAL field.

The senior Pee Wee crown will be on the line at noon followed by the Senior Midget game at 2 p.m.

Local teams will be among the field in the next two games, Oak Grove's Renegades vying for a Junior Midget title at 4 p.m. and the De Anza Lancers going for a Midget crown at 6 p.m.

A victory last Saturday against Stockton would have pushed the Almaden Braves into the 8 p.m. Junior Bantam title clash. A loss would mean Stockton would contend.

Rivals meet in 40th renewal Thursday at LG's Helm field

Professional football, real estate, bank work, sales, sports writing and teaching are varied occupations. But someone involved in each of those fields has something in common with someone in another — participation in the annual Los Gatos-Campbell football game played on Thanksgiving Day!

Of course, former Turkey Day combatants have gone off into many different fields after playing in the valley's old rivalry.

But no matter where or how far away they wander, come turkey time they all have football memories of their days in red and blue, or orange and black.

This year's bout will mark the 40th renewal of the rivalry that started way back in 1934 when high school football was in its infancy in the area.

But this game has grown to be one of the biggest high school bouts to be found anywhere.

This season the two clubs will meet Thursday at 11 a.m. on Los Gatos' Helm field where the last two battles have come out ties.

The Wildcats hold the victory edge in the 39 games already played. Los Gatos has notched 21 wins in the series compared to 15 for the Buccaneers. Three games have ended in ties — 0-0 in 1943, 14-14 in 1969 and 0-0 in 1971.

Campbell had few highlights in the early years of the rivalry. They were shutout in nine of the first 10 games by LG.

But even though they scored just once, it was good for a victory in 1940 7-0. And in 1943 the Buc defense rose to the occasion and tied the Cats 0-0.

BUC TURN AROUND

Things started to turn around for Campbell in 1944. A young pass catcher named Billy Wilson came on the scene to catch four touchdown passes and lead the Bucs to a 25-13 win.

Wilson, who went on to greatness at San Jose state and with the San Francisco 49ers, also led the Bucs to their first Santa Clara Valley athletic league title. Scoring for the Wildcats were Dick Mariotto on a run and John Sanchez on a pass from Bill Moore.

Los Gatos won the next three 13-12, 20-6 and 20-12 before Campbell won another in 1948 20-18, just their third win in 15 years.

All-SCVAL end Dudley Herschback was the top Buc in 1949 but they fell to LG 14-2. In 1950 Frank Calabray scored six touchdowns on the season and Bob Saia, Charlie McBain and Tom Rhodes were all key Buc players but they still fell 27-20.

Despite the play of Dick Gleed, Ron Eddleman and Larry Pereira, Campbell fell again in 1951. But after that loss they were off on their longest win string of the rivalry.

CAMPBELL WIN STRING

Eddleman intercepted a Chuck Stewart pass for a touchdown and Bill Gregg went 97 yards for another to lead an 18-6 Campbell win.

Don Davis scored twice and gained 138 yards to lead the SCVAL champs to a 20-0 win over LG in 1953's Turkey Day clash. Gregg gained 91 yards in the win.

Campbell posted one of their biggest wins in 1954. Jim Rylie went 74 yards for a touchdown, Richard Callaway 41, Dick Kolte 33 and Eppie Gallego a yard to lead the Bucs to a 44-12 triumph and the SCVAL title. Russ Kahil also scored and Roy Cureton and Tony Schraub were key performers.

Cahill scored twice and Jim Corbus converted after each to lead the Bucs to a 14-7 win in 1955. Tony LoBue, Roger Lukehart and Jerry Sutton helped the Bucs to victory.

In 1956 Campbell held the victory trail. Jump passing Corbus, who scored a touchdown himself on a one-yard run, led the Bucs to victory. Cal Vargas scored on a one-yard run, Ken Buron on a three-yard blast and Dave Alvarez on a 10-yard run to spark the Bucs. Bud Scibner also was a Campbell standout. Joe Spiteri scored LG's only TD.

Despite the efforts of Buron and Dave Smith, who gained 69 and 53 yards, respectively, the Buc streak ended in 1957 when 5,500 fans watched LG win 27-6. Mike Higgins and Phil Monk scored for the Cats despite tough defense from Dan Grammis, Tom Farley, Jim Omura and Ray Tannehill.

LG won again in 1958 with Hugh Campbell spearheading the show. Campbell went on to star for Washington state and play pro ball in Canada. Quarterback Bob Stewart and running backs Buron, Ron Corbus and Frank Smith starred for the Bucs.

MORTON-SCHRAUB ERA

But then came the Morton-Schraub era to Campbell. Craig Morton and Jack Schraub led the Bucs to wins over the Cats the next two years.

Morton threw for a pair of fourth period touchdowns, one to Walt Christiana with three minutes to go and the other to Schraub to lead Campbell to a 26-21 win in 1959.

Morton had thrown a 28-yard TD toss to Christiana in the second period and Ron Oburn ran for a score to lead Campbell to a 6-3 season and a second place tie. Dave Dyer rushed for 110 yards and LeRoy Ward, Manuel Cordova and Danny Schwartz were Buc standouts.

Probably the biggest turnout in the history of the Turkey Day game showed up in 1960. to see Morton and Schraub lead Campbell by LG 46-26. Between 8,000 and 10,000 were wrapped around the field when Campbell completed a 9-0 year.

LG won the total offense war with 333 yards to Campbell's 240. Monk scored three times for the Cats and John Sieber recovered a fumble for six. Jim Wanless threw to Jim Bledsoe for a six pointer and Bob Young ran well for the Cats.

But Morton tossed a 48 yarder to Schraub for six, Bill Pollack intercepted a pass and ran 97 yards for paydirt, Morton picked off an LG toss and ran 20 yards for a TD and Ron Oburn scored on runs of four, two and 60 and returned a punt 73 yards for a TD to clinch the win. Oburn scored all four of his TD's in the second half.

Of course, the pass-catch pair of Morton and Schraub went on to greatness at the University of California at Berkeley and were each drafted by the Dallas Cowboys, where Morton is still a qb. But they will always be remembered locally for their exploits at Campbell high.

LATE TD STARTS LG

Three straight pass completions from Eric Poole to Bill Fairband set the Cats on their way to a four game streak with a last second 25-19 win in 1961.

Poole's final pass to Fairband was good for three yards with two seconds left to give LG the victory. Poole was six for 10 for 114 yards in the pass department and Max Sparrer was the Cat ground leader with 73 yards and a touchdown.

Mike Spitzer and Pollack led the Buc's ground attack with 99 and 73 yards, respectively. Pollack scored twice for Campbell on an 18-yard run and a 27-yard pass from Murray Hall.

PLAYER-COACH — It will be a match-up of former Turkey Day game participants Thursday in the annual Los Gatos-Campbell rivalry. But the return of Campbell's Mike Spitzer and Los Gatos' Bob Skuse will be behind the scenes. The two played against each other in 1961 and 1962 and are both coaches on the varsity level this season. Skuse is the Cat's head coach and Spitzer is a Buc assistant. Spitzer is pictured above talking to Russ Hayslip on the Campbell sidelines.

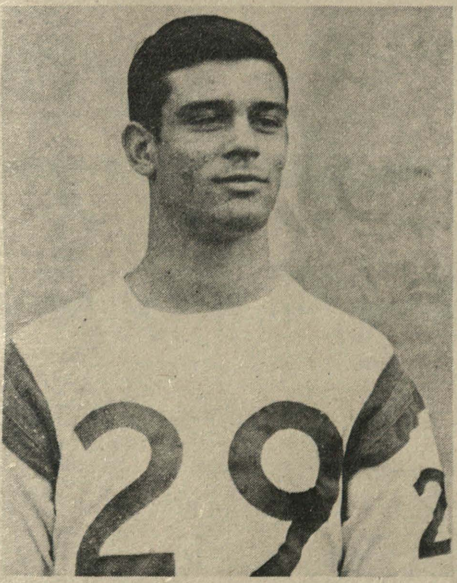
tops on Buc Turkey Day list

Dave Bush also were standouts for the Bucs in that one.

The Cat's Fairband went on to stardom as a defensive end for Colorado university and did a stint with the Oakland Raiders.

The LG string continued in 1962. Fairband and Bob Skuse, the current LG head coach, led the Cats to a 32-20 victory and the league title. Steve Womack, Tom Gibbons, Bruce Shimizu, now a coach at Andrew Hill, Spitzer, currently on the Campbell staff, and Duane Mayfield were Campbell standouts in the game.



FORMER GREAT — Chuck Hawthorne ranks as one of the greatest halfbacks ever to wear a Campbell high football uniform. He was superb against Los Gatos in Thanksgiving Day endeavors, leading the Bucs to wins of 25-0 and 45-0 in 1966 and 1967.

ENDS DROUGHT — In the early years of the Campbell-Los Gatos rivalry, the Bucs could manage just a single touchdown in 10 years. But in 1944 a receiver named Billy Wilson came on the scene and ended the Campbell scoring drought with four TD receptions to lead the Bucs to a 25-13 win.

A 99 yard drive for a touchdown in the fourth quarter kept the LG string going in 1963 when they won 21-20 over Campbell at Helm field.

Steve Shank returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown and Randy Kermode went 84 yards on an end around to lead Los Gatos to a 15-8 win in 1964.

The Buc's only TD was scored on a Don Kinzel to Dave Maas pass. Walt Womack gained 29 yards on the touchdown drive after Jim Strickland had returned a punt 36 yards. Womack carried 19 times for 99 yards and caught four passes for 50.

BUCS STREAK AGAIN

The Los Gatos streak ended and Campbell started one of their own in 1965 with a 32-14 victory. Dale Daneman scored three times and gained 142 total yards. Gary Paske passed to Larry Berton and Kent McCalin for TD's.

Jim Fanning and Tony Collomer each scored for the Wildcats.

Probably the greatest running back in Buc history led Campbell to wins in the next two years. Chuck Hawthorne's touchdown and 129 yards led Campbell in 1966 to a 25-0 win in 1966. McCalin threw touchdown passes to Stan Hedegard, Soren Hansen and John Lobrovich. Gary Tomasso, Mike Clark, Al Simizu and Dennis Craig led the Campbell defense.

Hawthorne led Campbell to a title in 1967 and was named the league's most valuable player. Against LG, he scored four times and added an extra point to claim the Central coast section scoring crown.

He scored on runs of three, 43, 20 and two yards to lead the Bucs to a 45-0 Turkey Day win in 1967. Tomasso threw to Hedegard for a score and Hank Oltmann and Dick Perry did superb jobs both ways for the Bucs.

Campbell took their fourth in a row from Los Gatos in 1968 53-14, winning another league title. Grant Mayfield, Mike Cunningham and Tomasso were key figures in the Buc attack.

CATS TAKE OVER

The Cats took over as league champs in 1969 and broke the four game Campbell win string. But they had to settle for a 14-14 tie. Sophomore Steve Davis scored on a two-yard run and Joe Alvarez threw to Dave McClain for a 28-yard score. An Alvarez pass to Bill McCall tied the game 14-14 on the two point conversion.

Los Gatos was a 27-19 winner in 1970. Davis scored twice for Campbell and Alvarez hit Sam LoBue for 32 yards and the third Buc TD. Gatos got their first score on a 97 yard pass play and the game winning TD on a 45-yard fumble recovery by Glen Williams.

Nobody won in 1971 and nobody even scored in the 0-0 tie. Neither team could move to their foe's 10. Davis gained 72 yards on 19 carries and Ron Young and Mike Cargill led the defense.

In last year's game the Cats got back on the win side with a 35-6 triumph. Gary Lynn scored twice and gained 99 yards and Randy Cobb threw for 165 yards to lead the win. Oswald tossed for 249 yards and a key completion went to John Navarro to set up a pass to Curt Russell for the TD.
